

Entrepreneurship in Atlanta and Georgia

Stephen Fleming
Chief Commercialization Officer
<fleming@gatech.edu>

Entrepreneurial Atlanta!

- None of these organizations/events/funds/connections existed four years ago...

Kauffman Report 2009

KAUFFMAN
entrepreneurial activity

The states with the highest entrepreneurial activity rates were Georgia (590 per 100,000 adults), New Mexico (580 per 100,000 adults), Montana (530 per 100,000 adults), Arizona (490 per 100,000 adults), Alaska (440 per 100,000 adults), and California (440 per 100,000 adults). Among the fifteen largest MSAs in the United States, the highest entrepreneurial activity rate in 2008 was in Atlanta (0.74 percent). The large MSA with the lowest entrepreneurial activity rate was Philadelphia (0.16 percent).

(170 per 100,000 adults), Iowa (190 per 100,000 adults), and Ohio (190 per 100,000 adults).

KAUFFMAN
The Foundation of Entrepreneurship